FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

*Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Matthew 6:28-30

The following was from my daily devotions, The Word for Every Day by Alvin Rogness. Here's what he says about Matthew 6.

How we envy people who can enjoy the moment, who are absorbed in the tasks at hand, with minimal anxiety for what may come tomorrow! They go about with a relaxed step, they find merriment and beauty, they spread cheer.

What is their secret? Not stupidity, certainly. Not indifference. Not insensitivity. Nor self-confidence.

More than likely, their secret is God. They have a towering confidence in his love and care for them. They entrust the tomorrows to him. They accept the tasks and the joys of the moment as assignments and gifts from him. They believe that the outcome of life is in his hands.

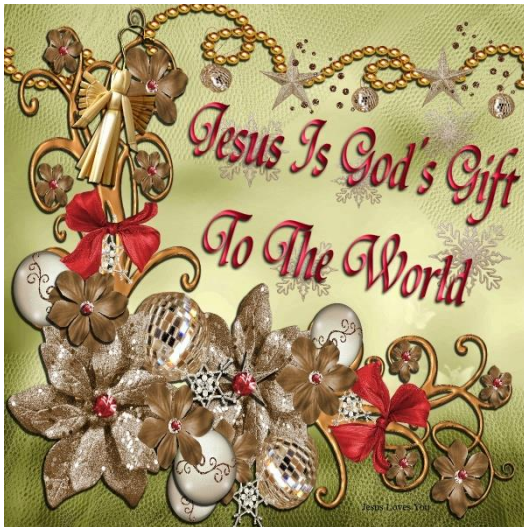

William James, great American psychologist, speaks of this quality:

“The transition from tenseness, self-responsibility, and worry to equanimity, receptivity, and peace, is the most wonderful of all those shiftings of inner equilibrium, those changes of the personal center of energy, which I have analyzed so often; and the chief wonder of it is that it so often comes about, not by doing, but simply relaxing and throwing the burden down. This abandonment of self-responsibility seems to be the fundamental act in specifically religious, as distinguished from moral, practice. It antedates theologies and is independent of philosophies . . . Christians who have it strongly live in what is called “recollection” and are never anxious about the future, nor worry over the outcome of the day. Of Saint Catharine of Genoa it is said that “she took cognizance of things, only as they were presented to her in succession, moment by moment . . . when the duty that was involved in it was accomplished, it was permitted to pass away as if it had never been, and give way to the facts and duties of the moment which came after.”

I worry about many things as I know you do, too. There are always so many things to do. And yet if I take each task one at a time and complete it, then I can lay it down and I am totally available to work on the next. If we pray for this grace, this good news, it will be necessary for us to be willing that the Lord take care of tomorrow. Most of us find this exceedingly difficult to do. We worry about all sorts of possibilities (most of them never materialize), when we might very well have laid this burden down at the Lord's feet. Lord help us to do just that.

Pastor Phil Bogen

Dear Redeemer Family,

In this busy time of the holiday season, may we find time to relax and appreciate what we have. I have challenged myself to come up with one thing each day in December that I am truly thankful for and would challenge you to do the same. Life is short, but full of people, places, experiences, and memories that we can be thankful for.

Another idea is to challenge yourself to do at least one act of kindness every day for someone else. Possibilities could include a phone call to someone who's lonely, a "thinking of you" card to someone who you haven't communicated with recently, visiting one of our shut-ins, purchasing a gift for a boy from Homme Youth & Family Services or for someone in the nursing home, offering to babysit, ringing bells for the Salvation Army, praying for those in need... Even though December is a busy and sometimes hectic month, taking time to be thankful and to be kind will make it even more special.

Thank you Jesus, for teaching us what is important in life!

Ann Hawley, Redeemer Secretary

Poinsettia Sale: It always looks so festive to have the church decorated with poinsettias for the Christmas season. You are welcome to bring in your own plant, or there will be plants available for $5 (payable to Ann Hawley) in the Gathering Space. You can take your plant home after worship on Dec. 25th. Be sure to include "in honor of" or "in memory of" on the form at church so we can include it in the bulletin. Thank you!

Pantry volunteers fill backpacks that students take home Friday and return on Monday. There are over 40 students enrolled in this program and the cost of feeding each one is about $100 per year.

Redeemer Lutheran has donated $200.00 collected from the Lenten

Soup/Sandwich donations to support this program.

Individually if you are interested in sponsoring a child for a year for the WB Weekend Backpack Program, please send $100 to Wittenberg Food Pantry, PO Box 212, Wittenberg WI 54499. Include a note denoting that it is for the WB Weekend Backpack Program, and also list "In honor of" or "In memory of" if you wish. As we have in years past, we look to our partners to bring some holiday spirit to those we serve through our annual Operation Christmas.

Homme Youth and Family Programs could use your congregation's assistance at this time of year. Please join this effort to bring Christmas to those served by LSS and by your congregations. We thank you in advance for your continued support of our programs and the lives positively impacted through them.

Sincerely, Pamela Cotton, Homme Home Director

Guidelines for a Safe Sanctuary:

- In an effort to keep everyone healthy and safe, we ask that you consider the wellbeing of those around you.
- Masks, while not required, are considered a way to reduce the spread of airborne illness and the use of them is encouraged.
- Upon entering the church, during the service and after church, please allow ample distance to those outside of your family that are around you. The personal space and comfort zone around each and every one of us has increased over the last year. Please be aware.
- If you are not feeling well, please stay home. If you are a part of the service, we will find someone to fill in for you. You will be missed and we will most certainly pray for you.
